Vice President's report ~ Jewell Shivery:

Township meetings have been completed

Gopher Golf: will start working on in October, getting sponsorships, entertainment, etc. Entertainment will be needed all day. Course sponsor/event sponsors are needed. Letters will be mailed by October 15.

Musical instruments are being installed. Will need something different from the concrete pilings for the xylophone.

Berks County Books: When the last load of books was dropped of the gentleman apologized for not having been in touch. He has not been through all the books yet.

Treasurer's report: Jewell Shivery made a motion to accept the report. Rhonda Heidinger seconded. Motion carried. Report was approved as printed.

Fundraising Committee: Yard Sale: Peg has "stuff" to pick up September 28. The room is only available Thursday before the event. If the shed isn't available Jewell could bring a trailer and leave it here for storage. Jewell will contact Martin's about bottles of water. Whoopie pies need to be ordered (Peggy?). Tickets need to stipulate pick-up by noon for pre-sold dinners. Deb will do the ads.

Friends of the Library: Deb Waite will talk to the friends about manning the booth at the fair.

Old Business:

Panels in the sign have been updated.

Camera information will be forthcoming.

New Business:

Mark Hohenwarter has reached out about painting the lines in the parking lot. We would need to buy the case of paint which costs about $100.

Public comments: Janis Hohenwarter has taken over the garden. She has tried vegetables and has encouraged people to pick items. Nothing is sprayed. There is some wildlife: garden toad, baby robin, hummingbird. She is working on composting. Planning next year's garden has started and Janis is thinking about planting herbs.

Three highlights for the friends:

1. Volunteer at the fair booth
2. Update for the October 21 Chicken BBQ/Yard & Book Sale
3. Update on Berks County Books

With no further business, a motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Jewell Shivery, seconded by Rhonda Heidinger. Motion carried.

Next meeting, October 9 @ 6:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Rhonda Heidinger
